

Challenges and Opportunities of Waste recycling in Ceramic Industry

- Sunil Kumar Das

Ceramic tile industries are now working on the principle of Zero disposal to save our environment. On this principle companies have to recycle all by-products in their manufacturing process. Now most of the governments are taking concern and made stricter industrial and environmental policy. Due to urbanization, deforestation, industrialization our environment is in dangerous level.

We can turn industrial waste in other building material products adding value to organization.